

PARALLELS IN THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH BETWEEN SEVERE TREATMENT BY BABYLON & THE PUNISHMENT OF BABYLON

---

Severe Treatment by Babylon	The Parallel	Punishment for Babylon
1:11–16; 6:1–5, 22–24; 46:20, 24; 47:2–4	As Babylon had been a conquering force coming from the north, she would also be conquered by a nation from the north.	50:3, 9, 41, 42
20:5; 30:16	As Babylon had plundered nations, others would plunder her.	50:9, 10
25:9, 11, 18 (see 49:13, 17, 18)	As Babylon had left other nations desolate, she would be left desolate.	25:12; 50:10, 13, 40
46:2, 8–12	As Babylon had poured out God’s vengeance on others, she would also feel His vengeance.	50:15
14:16–18; 48:31–34	As others had starved, fearing Babylon’s army, she would fear other armies.	50:16
48:42–44	As Babylon had been a snare to others, she would be ensnared.	50:24
6:22, 23	As Babylon had drawn the bow against others, the bow would be drawn against her.	50:14, 29; 51:3
11:22; 18:21 (see 48:15; 49:26)	As Babylon had made young men fall in the streets, her young men would fall in the streets.	50:30; 51:3, 4
21:12, 14; 34:2, 22; 43:12, 13; 48:45; 49:2, 27	As Babylon had been a kindled fire to others, a kindled fire would rage in her.	50:32
6:24; 49:24 (see 4:31; 47:3)	As Babylon had made the hands of others “feeble” (KJV), she would be feeble.	50:43
4:7 (see 49:19)	As Babylon had come as a lion from the thicket of the Jordan River, another enemy would come on her in the same way.	50:44
4:8; 25:34; 48:20	As Babylon had caused others to wail, she would also wail.	51:8
48:15–18; 49:18–33	A general summary of conditions and causes of Babylon’s downfall is given.	51:43, 53–58
