

EPHESUS. Cross-shaped baptistry in the Church of St. John, which illustrates that one is immersed into Christ's death (Rom. 6:3), being "washed . . . in the blood of the Lamb" (Rev. 7:14).