

PERGAMUM. First built in honor of the Egyptian goddess Serapis (2nd century B.C.), this red brick temple was converted into a Byzantine church building, later known as the Church of St. Paul (Red Basilica).

©Resource Publications, Searcy, AR, 2002, 2005. All rights reserved. Permission is granted for use in teaching and preaching.